Empowering Future Leaders Through Education

Partner with Harding Miller Education Foundation to Create Long-Lasting Impact

Private Ancillary Funds (PAFs) have a unique opportunity to drive meaningful change in Australia by supporting the Harding Miller Education Foundation. We are dedicated to providing high-achieving Australian girls from disadvantaged backgrounds with the resources and support they need to unlock their potential and achieve educational excellence. Together, we can transform lives and create a ripple effect of positive change.

Why Partner with Us?

A Proven Model of Success: Since 2015, we have awarded over 1,770 scholarships, empowering recipients with laptops, high-speed internet, study resources, and professional coaching. Our students achieve outstanding academic results, with many becoming leaders in their fields.

Transparent and Measurable Impact: 100% of your contribution directly supports scholarships. Administrative costs are fully funded by the Foundation's endowment, ensuring your investment has maximum impact.

Aligned Values: By supporting Harding Miller, your PAF directly contributes to gender equity, education, and breaking the cycle of disadvantage—core pillars of creating a more equitable society.

How Your PAF Can Make a Difference

Fund Scholarships: Sponsor one or multiple scholarships to provide direct support to talented, disadvantaged students.

Support Program Expansion: Help us reach more students in remote and underserved communities.

Enable Strategic Initiatives: Contribute to initiatives such as STEM-focused resources, career mentoring, and alumni networks that enhance the long-term success of our scholars.

Recognition and Engagement Opportunities

As a valued partner, your PAF will:

Receive regular impact reports detailing the progress and achievements of the students you support. Subject to your approval, be acknowledged in our communications, showcasing your commitment to transformative education

Have opportunities to connect with our scholars and see firsthand the difference you're making.

Let's Create a Brighter Future Together

Your support through a Private Ancillary Fund has the power to transform lives, strengthen communities, and build a better future for generations to come. Join us in our mission to empower Australia's next generation of female leaders.
