Support Harding Miller Education Foundation Through Workplace Giving

Workplace Giving is a simple yet powerful way for you and your colleagues to make a direct and lasting impact on the lives of Australia's brightest young women from disadvantaged backgrounds. By contributing to the Harding Miller Education Foundation, you can help equip these future leaders with the tools and opportunities they need to excel.

Why Support Us Through Workplace Giving?

Transform Lives: Since 2015, we have supported over 1,770 high-achieving students by providing scholarships that include essential resources such as laptops, internet access, tutoring, and personal coaching.

Direct Impact: Every dollar you donate through Workplace Giving goes directly to supporting scholarships, as administrative costs are fully covered by our endowment.

Ease and Flexibility: Contributions are automatically deducted from your pre-tax income, making giving effortless and tax effective. Donations are fully tax-deductible, further maximising the value of your support.

How You Can Make a Difference

Regular Contributions: Even small, regular donations can collectively create significant change when combined with the generosity of your colleagues.

Employer Matching: Encourage your employer to match employee donations, doubling the financial support and amplifying the impact of your contributions.

Spread the Word: Share the opportunity with your colleagues to grow the community of support for Harding Miller scholars.

Benefits of Workplace Giving

Personal Fulfillment: Know that your contribution is directly helping a deserving student achieve her dreams.

Team Impact: Join forces with your colleagues to create a shared sense of purpose and community.

Tax Advantages: Enjoy the convenience of pre-tax giving and the benefit of full tax deductibility, reducing the need for end-of-year tax claims.

Together, We Can Build a Brighter Future

By participating in Workplace Giving, you and your colleagues are not just donating—you are investing in the next generation of female leaders, helping to create a more equitable and prosperous society.
